

Reshapes How We Live - 1 Thessalonians 1:6-10

“Hearing the gospel wasn’t simply a ‘head thing’—taking in some information and nodding in agreement.”

- Where do you most often feel “spiritually flat” or stuck in routine?
- What would it look like for the resurrection to visibly reshape your everyday life this week?

“The question is not: ‘Am I imitating someone?’ The real question is: ‘Who is shaping the way I live?’”

- Why do you think imitation is such a major theme in the New Testament?

Read Together

- 1 Corinthians 11:1
- Philippians 3:17
- Philippians 4:9
- What do these verses teach us about discipleship?

“If everyone followed our example, would the world look more like Jesus?”

- In what settings is it hardest for your faith to be visible?

“People pay attention when someone continues to trust Christ in grief, disappointment, illness, or uncertainty.”

- How can Christians support one another during difficult seasons?

“To follow Jesus meant rearranging their entire lives.”

- Which idols are most culturally accepted or celebrated?
- How can we recognize when good things have become ultimate things?

“One faithful church influenced countless others.”

- What small acts of faithfulness might have a larger ripple effect than you realize?
- Have you experienced someone else’s faith impacting your life in a lasting way?

“People cannot imitate a fragmented faith because they do not know which version of us is real.”

- Where are you tempted to separate “church life” from “real life”?

“God changes us through the power of the Spirit as a result of the gospel.”

- How does the Holy Spirit help us imitate Christ?
- What daily practices help you remain aware of God’s presence?

“Who helps you love Jesus more?”

“Who do you help love Jesus more?”