Sermon Discussion Guide Remember, Repent, Renew Nehemiah 9:1–6, 32–38
View Sermon here:

The Israelites spent considerable time remembering everything God had done for them—from choosing Abraham to delivering their ancestors from slavery in Egypt and providing for them in the wilderness.
"Before we ever get around to talking about what we need to change, we need to remember who God is and what He has done for us."

- How can remembering God's grace change the way we look at our lives?
- What are some specific ways you have experienced God's faithfulness?

"It's one thing to remember God's faithfulness. It's another thing to be honest about our own unfaithfulness."

- What are some ways we can allow our priorities, habits, or choices to pull us away from God?
- What does it look like to take responsibility for our own spiritual lives?

"Our hope is not in our own goodness – it is in God's goodness."
Read 1 John 1:8–9.

- What is the difference between feeling guilty about something and genuinely repenting?
- Why is it important to remember that God's forgiveness is an expression of grace rather than something we earn?

"Repentance isn't simply about looking backward and feeling bad – it's about looking forward and making a decision to live differently."

- How might spending more time in God's Word, repairing a relationship, changing a habit, or connecting with other believers help us grow?
- Why is it important that our response to God's grace involves a willingness to change?

Closing Questions
What do you need to remember about God's faithfulness?
Where is God calling you to turn around and live differently?